App of the Week

Chosen by Mobicity Staff

Rod's pick: Zedge
(<http://www.zedge.net/android>)

Platform: Android (Free)

Zedge lets you customize your phone with your own themes, ringtones, screensavers and wallpapers. Looking for existing content? Zedge lets you download directly from the app and manage and organize your selections. Thanks Rod!

Renata's pick: Cineplex Mobile
(<http://www.cineplex.com/apps.aspx>)

Platform: Blackberry and Android (Free)

It's show time! Add the world's smallest box office to your Mobicity phone to quickly and easily find theatre info by map, phone number, etc. Buy tickets through your phone with no additional fees, check your SCENE points balance and add your card number to your phone to earn more points. Thanks Renata!

Tricia's pick: Urbanspoon
(<http://www.urbanspoon.com/blackberry>)
(<http://www.urbanspoon.com/android>)

Platform: Android and Blackberry (Free)

Can't decide where to eat? Urbanspoon can help. Simply spin the Urbanspoon slot machine and it'll pick a great restaurant for you. You can filter choices by neighbourhood, cuisine or price plus Urbanspoon shows ratings and reviews from newspapers, bloggers and fellow eaters. Thanks Tricia!

Janet's pick: miCoach
(<http://www.micoach.com/>)

Platform: BlackBerry and Android (Free)

miCoach brings a personal trainer's touch to your device and includes specific programs for basketball, football, running, soccer and tennis. miCoach uses GPS tracking for real-time, pace-based coaching and can sync with your account so you can share and view your workouts as you move along. Thanks Janet!

Michael's pick: Evernote
(<http://www.evernote.com/>)
